

Duke University mission for travel program

Duke Alumni Travels plans and directs high-quality educational travel programs in its mission to strengthen the lifelong bonds and learning relationships between the university, the alumni association, alumni, and friends. Embedded in its global educational purpose, the program primarily aims to feature, connect and engage alumni with Duke faculty, students, senior administrators and Duke facilities around the world.